

SEPTEMBER

Writing Prompts

Where would you choose to stay for a week: an underwater hotel or an igloo hotel? Why?	Write a summer memory you never want to forget.	Write 3–4 ways you could store or use your art projects from Pre–K to 1st grade.	List at least 10 questions for an older family member.	What kind of business would you like to start? Describe your employees & customers.
Step outside. Find something small to study intently. Write a description.	If you lived 2000 years ago, which would be the best to own: a horse, a cow, or a dozen chickens? Why?	Would you rather be an otter or an eagle? Tell why.	When you are in a bad mood, is it easy for you to snap out of it? Why or why not?	For one year, would you rather go without electricity or running water?
You are a pirate. Write 10 steps to find your buried treasure when you return next year.	If you could be a movie or TV character, who would you be? Why?	September 25th is National Comic Book Day. Create a comic strip with at least 4 frames.	What's the kindest thing anyone has ever done for you? Tell the story.	Write about a time when you or a family member needed to use math in real life.
You are a kitchen appliance. Write about one of your experiences.	Would you rather live in space and visit Earth, or live on Earth and visit space? Why?	Create a word search puzzle using words from your history or science lesson.	Where did you live when you were five? Describe what you remember about that home.	Do you have a special or fancy pen or pencil you like to write with? Describe it.
